Class History

In the fall of 1952, a group of Southern Belles and Southern Gentlemen started on the long and hard task of getting a high school education. This group consisted of twenty-seven Southerns. Holding the umbrella over these Southerns was Mr. Frank Hardin. Helping to lead were Becky Starling, Betty Mullis, Barbara Ledford and Don Barnhardt. The first part of our trip was successful with the biggest struggle being the Halloween Carnival. Our candidates for King and Queen were: King, William Bailey; Queen, Betty Lou Bailey, and her Attendant, Jackie McCulloh.

Then in the crisp August air of 1953, we started on the second part of our trip. Counting the Southerns this year was Miss Mary Rose Hall. Don Barnhardt, Betty Mullis, and Elmer Shore helped with the job. In counting the heads we found that Nell Sidden, Ruby Cornatzer, Bill Mock, and Bobby Cope were no longer around. We had gained two new ones, Ethel and Elmer Shore. We were later to find out that Elmer or "Pete" was to be a big factor in our class work in the following years. Our candidates for the Halloween Carnival this year were King, Donald Barney; Queen, Sallie Bailey, and her Attendant being, Betty Mullis. This year had been very successful with all the work and parties we had.

The Southerns were aware of the extra load we would have to carry this year of 1954 for we were now being called Juniors. Again holding the umbrella over the Southerns was Mr. Frank Hardin. While calling the roll we found that one of the Southern Belles had changed her name from Sallie Bailey to Mrs. Ronald Bamey. We also found out that Ronnie had quit school. Our group proved to be very musical this year which was to be a big help with the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel in Winston-Salem. Our candidates for the Halloween Carnival this year were King, Roy Potts; Queen Edith Bailey, and her Attendant, Jackie McCulloh. All the work and parties helped to make this year very successful and one to be remembered for a long time to come. Helping to plan all the fun we were to have that year was Don Barnhardt, Betty Mullis, and Mildred Nance. They proved to be very helpful in everything. We also gained a new Southern Belle who went by the name of Shirley Cornatzer.

Then in the year of 1955, which was also to be a year we would not forget, we found that one of our very best Gentlemen, Don Barnhardt had decided to leave for he had attended summer school. Holding the group in hand this year was Mrs. J. D. Parker, Jr., who we were to find was a lot of fun along with being very stem. Helping Mrs. Parker were Elmer Shore, William Bailey, and Mildred Nance. This was really a big year for us. Our candidates for the Halloween Carnival this year were King, Bennett Potts; Queen, Betty Mullis, and her Attendant, Jackie McCulloh. This year we worked harder than ever before and won with $274. This year was full of parties and hard work. We wanted the "OUT-LOOK" to be the best there was. Then we wanted the Annual to be even better and we worked hard to make them both a big success.

Class Prophecy

As I sit at my table with nothing to do, I stare into my crystal ball and it is turning slowly. I see my classmates are scattered everywhere.

First I see Anne Lawson, who has finally gotten to be Mrs. Carl Smith. She is now modeling French bathing suits in Mocksville.

Betty Mullis has finally reached her goal, nursing in a lunatic hospital in Advance, North Carolina.

Why there's Mildred Nance, still single and happy, now a barber in Fork.

Who is that over there with those cute little triplets? Why that's Gray Barnhardt! I see he's finally got himself a wife and three kids.

I see Pete Shore in a uniform. Why, he's a professional bus driver.

Here comes Red Cornatzer, and I see that he's still single. He's now the owner and operator of a big "Rest Home For Old Maids."

And now, who should I see but Josephine Howard. She has done real well for herself, as she is a well trained lion tamer.

Clark Smith, the boy voted most studious is now teaching in Kindergarten.

There's Roy Potts, he's now on Television, taking Clare Bell's place.

I see that shy Clifford Howard is still single and doing well in motion pictures, as he has all the girls swooning over him.

Bennett Potts is doing real well in business. He's now running "The Grill" in Mocksville.

Richard Bailey has just finished his 47th year of motorcycle racing and has decided to retire.

Over there are bright lights. Why I'm in a carnival and over here is a sign that says, "The Laughing Lady." That's nobody but jolly little Shirley Cornatzer.

There's Ethel Shore, now Mrs. Kenny Carter, living in Smith Grove and running a tourist Court.

I see William Bailey in real estate business. He's doing well for himself, a wife and six kids.

Sallie Barney is now doing secretary work in a large animal hospital in Winston-Salem.

Jackie McCulloh voted most popular girl is now president of a big club. The "Lonely Hearts Club!"

I see Edith Bailey and Geraldine Spry going down the road. They are both happily married and live near each other.

Now my crystal ball is slowly fading and I must be moving on as I have other places to visit and more fortunes to tell.

Dear Mildred,

I have always enjoyed knowing you. I don't think I really knew you until we started work on the annual. I don't know what I would have done without all the help you give. I don't think the rest of the staff did you, they + I worked so hard - but it was fun. If you tackle everything, as you did the annual I know you will be as successful as you. May you have luck and happiness you so richly deserve. Love, M. Bishop

Mildred,

You will never know how much I have enjoyed being in school with you for the past twelve years. You have always tried to keep us together & happy, & from starving ~~to death~~. Now that school is almost over I know we will never get together again (the whole class) I'm wishing the sweetest of luck in the world.
